If you help a family member or friend with bills, meals, medications, and more, you are not alone. You are one of thousands in Minnesota that is a family caregiver. Providing help can be rewarding but also overwhelming. Fortunately, there are resources available to support you:

- RESPITE SERVICES offer you time away to get some rest or to do something you enjoy.
- CAREGIVER EDUCATION and training can help you acquire new information and skills to care for yourself and others.
- A CAREGIVER CONSULTANT can help you assess your situation, set goals, and develop an individualized plan so you can live your own life while caring for another person.
- SUPPORT GROUPS can help you find emotional support as you share your experiences with other family caregivers.
- OTHER SERVICES AND SUPPORTS can make your caregiving easier such as meals, home modification and emergency response systems.
